

TACKLE FOOTBALL

St. Mary's Recreation and Parks Youth Football League (SMRP YFL) Fall 2010 Season

This club football program is designed to provide a safe and positive youth sports environment for children ages 5 through 14 years old. The clubs are responsible for player registration, fundraisers, recruitment of coaches and formation of teams. Each club will enter their teams into appropriate age and weight division within the league. Recreation and Parks staff will handle functions such as scheduling of games, contracting game officials, game day supervision, and conducting player weigh-ins. All coaches within the league must be certified through an approved coaches training program and a criminal background check.
