SMRP YFL Mission

The purpose of the St. Mary's Recreation & Parks Youth Football League (SMRP YFL) is to provide children an opportunity to participate in a positive youth development program through the sport of football. Participants provided with a safe environment allowing them to learn the fundamentals of football under the leadership of certified volunteer coaches. Objectives shall include the development of positive social values and character traits; good citizenship; physical and mental health; and a knowledge, appreciation, and interest in football. It is a goal of this league to instill the will to win and the courage to accept defeat or disappointment, with emphasis on clean play and sportsmanlike conduct.
