Commission for Women to Host Voices of Maryland Women

Leonardtown, MD - The Maryland Commission for Women and the St. Mary's County Commission for Women want to hear from you!

Maryland women from across the region are invited to speak to the state Commission for Women and their county Commission for Women about the challenges they face, as women, and what would make their lives better. With the information gathered, a report will be written with recommendations for improvements in programs, legislation and policies that impact the lives of Maryland women from the Western Panhandle to the Eastern Shore.

The Commission for Women will have an open Voices of Maryland Women forum on Thursday, September 28, from 6 - 8 p.m., in the commissioners meeting room inside the Chesapeake Building. The address is 41770 Baldrige Street in Leonardtown, MD. Seating is limited, so registration is encouraged.
